A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS

The elders will be meeting the week of January 17th to make a decision whether we will be meeting together soon or continue to worship from home. You will be notified! Please continue to be in prayer for them as they make decisions for our congregation!!

FAMILY NEWS

THANK YOU –for the all the prayers, cards and phone calls during my recent knee surgery and hospital stay. I am doing well. I appreciate every one of you! ~Don Lawrence

THANK YOU—so much for the beautiful plant you sent. Your thoughtfulness and kindness are greatly appreciated!
~family of Barbara Hill

LADIES BIBLE CLASS—will resume meeting on Wednesday, January 27th @ 10AM at the building. Nancy Ballard will be teaching about the Beatitudes. Please join us!

CAN YOU HELP? —Randy & Loree's friends/missionaries will be coming to Paris on Jan. 31st. They are needing a ride from the airport. If you are willing to do this please contact Loree @ 405-623-6055. Also, if you could help with meals or gift cards for groceries or restaurants, please contact Loree.

FOOD PANTRY

During these hard times for many families, we still continue to offer food from our pantry to help when there is a need. If you can help stock the pantry, please do! Some staple items are: Peanut butter, grape jelly, spaghetti sauce and noodles, canned meats, corn, green beans, fruit, soups with meat, mac-n-cheese, instant potatoes, Tuna or Chicken Helper, boxed cereal and saltine crackers. Thanks!!

The North Texas Food Bank will be delivering food from our parking lot on Wednesday, January 20th. THANK YOU to those that have volunteered to help. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE OF TIME CHANGE HERE!!!! Workers need to arrive at 9:30 a.m. Food will be distributed beginning at 10 a.m. and continuing until all the food boxes are gone.
