A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS

As the death toll of Covid-19 continues to rise nationally, the elders have cautiously and prayerfully decided to postpone our in-person services for another two weeks. We will not be meeting Jan. 24th or Jan. 31st. The elders will re-evaluate the local conditions and determine our future plans. Please go to lacoc.org or fb to watch a taping of the sermon.

FAMILY NEWS

THANK YOU –to all that volunteered to help with the North Texas Food Bank drive. It was a huge success! Over 21,000 pounds of food was distributed to nearly 400 families in need, according to The Paris News.

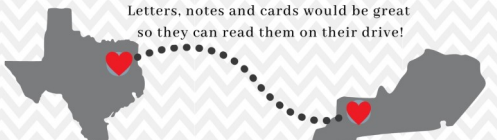

LADIES BIBLE CLASS–will resume meeting on Wednesday, January 27th @ 10AM at the building. Nancy Ballard will be teaching about the Beatitudes. Please join us!

CAN YOU HELP? –Randy & Loree's friends/missionaries will be coming to Paris on Jan. 31st. They are needing a ride from the airport. If you are willing to do this please contact Loree @ 405-623-6055. Also, if you could help with meals or gift cards for groceries or restaurants, please contact Loree.

Home is where the ❤️ is!

This Ladies Bible Class is hosting a drive-by Going Away Party
for Terry & Carol James

Please stop by this Saturday afternoon, January 23,
between 2 and 3:30
to wish them farewell as they begin a new adventure.
Letters, notes and cards would be great
so they can read them on their drive!

FOOD PANTRY

During these hard times for many families, we still continue to offer food from our pantry to help when there is a need. If you can help stock the pantry, please do! Some staple items are: Peanut butter, grape jelly, spaghetti sauce and noodles, canned meats, corn, green beans, fruit, soups with meat, mac-n-cheese, instant potatoes, Tuna or Chicken Helper, boxed cereal and saltine crackers. Thanks!!
