As temperatures fall below freezing beginning on Sunday and with a chance of snow on Monday, warming centers will open in the city of Paris. Beginning at 5pm on Sunday, the Salvation Army (located at 350 W. Kaufman) will serve dinner and then open an overnight warming shelter until 7am on Monday morning. We will be open on Monday from 7am-4pm as a daytime warming shelter. If needed, we will also be open Tuesday from 7am-noon. City Square will be open Sunday during the day. If you would like to volunteer for a shift here at the church during our shelter hours, please contact James Hanley @ 903-517-8794 or if you can volunteer at the Salvation Army, contact them at 903-784-7548. Please refer anyone without shelter or without heat to go to these warming shelters.

We need several volunteers for the upcoming months to help out on Sunday morning. Please sign up at the info center if you are willing to help out.
