FAMILY NEWS

We were blessed last Sunday to witness the baptism of Lukas Nesbit. Congrats Lukas, on this milestone in your spiritual journey. We pray that your baptism enriches your life, strengthens your faith, and helps you grow ever closer to God.

Our condolences to Mandy & Stephen Gerrald and family on the passing of Mandy's grandmother last week.

Updates:

- Nadra Tribbey had surgery on Thursday. Everything went well. Prayers for a speedy recovery.
- Jean King had a heart cath Jan. 24th and will be transferred to Dallas for further treatment. Please keep her and Bill in our prayers. Bill is home with respiratory issues.
- Judy Moore was admitted to PRMC but is now at home. Prayers for her health are appreciated.
- Please pray for Jean O'Neal. Jean fell on top of her bathroom cabinet door. There were no fractures or broken ribs but she's in a tremendous amount of pain and badly bruised. She is still recovering from a fall on Jan. 2nd and is searing a splint on her left wrist from that fall. Prayers are appreciated.

Our coffee area tends to get crowded on Sunday mornings, so we are relocating to a larger table in a different spot. We want to give everyone more room to enjoy their coffee and fellowship. We are grateful for the volunteers who keep our coffee service going every month. Your efforts are much appreciated!

Our food pantry is currently experiencing a shortage of supplies and needs to be restocked. Despite receiving monetary donations and purchasing food regularly, we are struggling to keep up with the demand. Your help is greatly appreciated in supporting us through food donations to help us fill our shelves. Please refer to the list of pantry staples available at the Info Center. Any contribution, no matter how small, would be greatly appreciated!
